ABOUT ORGANISERS

DELNET - DEVELOPING LIBRARY NETWORK

DELNET-Developing Library Network, New Delhi is a major Resource Sharing Library Network in India connecting more than 8000 institutions in 33 states in India and few other countries comprising of Universities, Colleges, R&D organisations, Medical hospitals, etc. DELNET is devoted to the Modernisation & Networking of Libraries. It was registered as a Society on June 30, 1992. It is located in Jawaharlal Nehru University Campus, New Delhi. "Networking Libraries, Sharing and Spreading Knowledge" remains the prime objective of DELNET for which it is working relentlessly for past more than 31 years. DELNET has received the prestigious IIPA Award for Excellence in Public Services on October 30, 2020 announced in the gracious presence of the Hon'ble Former Vice President of India Shri M. Venkaiah Naidu. The main objectives of DELNET is to promote resource sharing among the Member-Libraries by collecting, storing and disseminating information and by offering networked library services to users; to undertake research in the area of information science and technology, offer technical guidance to Member-Libraries; coordinate efforts for suitable collection development; facilitate and promote Inter Library Loan and delivery of documents, etc. DELNET has developed Discovery Portal, Knowledge Gainer Portal and Vision Portal (Video Lectures). The portals have sophisticated features for advance knowledge discovery. It is a simple, single window discovery layer which encourages the users to explore the networked library/knowledge resources offered through DELNET in a feature-rich environment. DELNET is a great boon for faculty, researchers, scholars, students, etc. of Member-Institutions. The testimonials received from eminent personalities and Member-Institutions can be viewed at www.delnet.in/testimonials.html

DELNET has Coordination Units in Bengaluru, Hyderabad and Pune.

DELNET arranges training programmes, lectures, workshops, webinars and the National Convention on Knowledge, Library and Information Networking (NACLIN) every year since 1998.

GOA UNIVERSITY, GOA

Goa University (GU) is perhaps the best Public University in India. It is multi-disciplinary and internationally visible. Located in globally recognized, progressive, socially harmonious Goa, GU has a predominantly young, highly diverse, qualified and motivated faculty. GU's per capita scientific productivity is sixth highest among Indian HEIs, measured in terms of top 25% Scopus publications as a ratio of all Scopus publications. With a small base of students drawing from a small host population, 71% of the students are women, one of the best gender ratios in India. GU also has the only western University Choir in India, which is globally renowned.

These achievements are particularly noteworthy in the light of Goa's unique political history. No higher education (except medicine) existed in Goa during the 451 years of Portuguese colonial rule. Immediately after the Liberation of Goa on 19 December 1961, Centre for Postgraduate Instruction and Research (CPIR) of Bombay University was established in Panaji in 1962. Goa University was established in 1984, incorporating CPIR, just prior to Goa achieving statehood in 1987. The picturesque Campus of 404 acres on Taleigao Plateau was inaugurated in 1990 with 12 departments, as compared to 6 Schools and 15 Departments today. From Marine Science to Konkani, many unique branches of learning are located in a small public multi-faculty university.

University Library

The Goa University Library and Information Centre was established in the year 1985. It was then part of the CPIR of Bombay University. From its modest collection of books, this library has developed into a huge library with modern facilities. At present, the library has a collection of 185391 books, 69 periodicals, 344 e-books, 7900+ e-Journals and 10983 volumes of bound journals. The library is getting a large number of periodicals on gratis too. The library is automated for its routine works and the entire collection is bar-coded.

A large number of online resources (full-text journals, citation & abstracting services, federated search engines, statistical tools etc.) are available to the users of the library through University funds. There are 13 such databases covering various subjects and two research assistance tools provided to the end users. The links to all these are provided via the Knowledge Portal available at http://www.unigoa.ac.in/library/knowledge-portal/. The off-campus access to these resources is provided through Shibboleth software provided by UGC INFLIBNET.

The Goa University Library has digitized its 1107 Theses and uploaded them to the Digital repository created using Dspace the Open-Source Software. The library services are being done through Koha an Open-Source Integrated Library Management Software . Users can easily get the detail on the availability of books and they can reserve and renew the books themselves online.

The library website can be accessed at the URL http://library.unigoa.ac.in. This website is developed using an Open-Source Content Management System Wordpress. A huge Knowledge Portal has been developed which links to multifarious information resources on the Internet.

HOW TO REACH GOA

Goa has become one of the inevitable tourists' destinations. As it is nestled between hills and seas, its beauty enthrals the travellers. With so much to offer including the swaying palm trees, the glittering sands and unmatched delicacies, Goa is indeed one of the most favoured destinations of India. The place is easily accessible by air, road, and rail.

By Air: Goa has two operational airports. The first being Dabolim Airport at Dabolim (26 Kms from Goa University), and the new Manohar International Airport is built at Mopa, North Goa (40 Kms from Goa University). Airport serves regular flights from Mumbai, Bangalore, Delhi and other major cities of India. You can hire a taxi to reach to your destination further. It also has International flights connectivity.

By Train: Goa's main railway stations are in Madgaon and Vasco Da Gama. Most of these railway stations are well connected with the major cities and towns of the country. You can easily get taxis and traveller bus from these stations.

By Road: There are numerous State and privately owned buses which run in and around the state. You can easily get buses to commute to nearby cities and towns from Goa.

ABOUT GOA

Goa, the smallest Indian state and much-loved tourist place of India, is situated in the coastal Konkan region and on the banks of Arabian Sea which forms its western coast.

Goa is known for its striking landscape, famous beaches in India, astounding monuments and churches and bustling Goa nightlife. Goa is one of the most visited tourist places in India. It attracts a large number of tourists from all over the world, round the year. There are several places to visit & tourist attraction points in Goa.

PLACES TO VISIT IN AND AROUND GOA

Calangute Beach: Calangute beach in Goa is also known as the Queen of Beaches. It is 15 km from the capital city Panjim. It is one of the most popular beach in Goa with a host of facilities to cater to visitors, including golden sand along the beach and water sports.

Shantadurga Temple: Shri Shantadurga Temple is situated at the foothill of Kavalem village in Ponda Taluka, Goa. The temple is dedicated to Shantadurga, the goddess who mediates between Vishnu and Shiva. The deity is also called 'Santeri'.

Church of Basilica of Bom Jesus: The Basilica of Bom Jesus is the most famous of all the churches in Old Goa. It contains the relics of St. Francis Xavier, Patron saint of Goa, Apostle of the Indies. He was known as Goencho Saib by most of the people of Goa.

Aguada Fort: Standing on the crumbling ramparts of what was once the most formidable and impregnable of the Portuguese forts in India, one looks out at a panoramic ocean vista, witnessing the confluence of the Mandovi River and Arabian Sea, over which the fort has kept watch for more than four hundred years.

Palolem Beach: Palolem Beach is a stretch of white sand on a bay in Goa. It is known for its calm waters and for its nightlife, including "silent discos".
